WAKEFIELD

Convicted of Embezzlement
By Michigan Jury in Half an Hour

REFUSED TO TAKE WIT-NESS STAND

After Learning Prosecution Had His Record

OF FORMER CONVICTIONS

Previously Had Served Time

One Of Which He Was Convicted Yesterday—
Will Be Sentenced In Few Days—Maximum Penalty
Five Years.

(Special to Advocate.)
Detroit, Mich., Feb. 17.—W. Curtis Wakefield, whose civic uplifting activities here and in Newark, O., and in various cities throughout the United States are alleged to have been marked by a trail of unpaid bills, was convicted by a jury in recorder's court here in half an hour
late Wednesday afternoon, of embezzlement. He was remanded to the Wayne county jail to await further action by the court. The maximum penalty for the offense is five years.

Wakefield did not take the stand,
although he had declared that he would triumphantly defend himself and refute the "slanders" of his alleged enemies, "the politicians."

The reason Wakefield preferred to remain mute in face of the accusations lodged against him did not come out until after the trial. Then it developed that Wakefield's attorney had gotten wind of the fact that the prosecution had in its possession Wakefield's record, comprising his convictions for five distinct offenses in various parts of the country.

Assistant Prosecutor William Heston, who handled the case for the people, had intended asking Wakefield about his operations in Newark, but Wakefield, by refusing to take the stand, prevented.

The fact that the prosecution had Wakefield's record came as a surprise to the defense. When Wakefield was arrested and brought to Detroit from Chicago, December 19,
last, one of the assistant prosecutors who first acted as counsel, that the case was of the opinion that Wakefield could not be convicted.
Wakefield acknowledged that he had been convicted about 16 years ago
in Boston, where he formed a copper company in defiance of the Massachusetts blue sky law.

The prosecution did not know that Wakefield had been convicted of four other offenses at various times.
One of the assistant prosecutors who worked on the case was of the opinion that Wakefield was mentally irresponsible. He changed his mind when Wakefield's record was brought out.

The record of Wakefield's former convictions was obtained by the prosecution just in time to be used in the present case. Wakefield, despite his numerous convictions—some of them for offenses similar to that of which he was convicted here—always escaped lightly. His longest term was a year and a half. At another time he was given six months. Generally he talked so well and earnestly about how his efforts toward up-lifting had been unappreciated through no fault of his own, that he was paroled.

If Wakefield had been freed of the charge against him in the present case, he could have been tried upon a dozen others, according to Assis-

ASHBROOK

REFUSES TO CALL COMMITTEE TO PARTICIPATE IN PUBLIC BUILDING PORK

Angers Statesmen in 11 States and Creates a Stir—Representative Mooney Stands With Him.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Representative William A. Ashbrook of Ohio caused a stir yesterday by letting it be known that he will decline to call his sub-committee together to participate in the distribution of public building pork. His attitude angered statesmen of 11 states, for Ash-brook's sub-committee has jurisdiction over public building appropriations for Ohio, Arizona, Arkansas, Illinois, Louisiana, Maine, Nebraska,
New Hampshire, New Jersey, Oklahoma and Wisconsin.

Five subcommittees of the house committee on public buildings and grounds cover the whole country in sections. The other four subcommittees are preparing to frame their building appropriations for their sections to go into the omnibus building bill.

Representative Mooney stands
with Ashbrook.

One of the bills before the Ash-brook subcommittee, was introduced by Ashbrook himself. It appropriates $100,000 for a site and building at Mt. Vernon.

Brandeis Not to Be Trusted, and Is Unscrupulous, Testifies Boston Lawyer to Committee

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Feb. 17.—Moorfield Storey, a Boston attorney, testified before the judiciary sub-committee of the senate today that Louis D.
Brandeis helped to wreck the New York and New England railroad in 1892, and 1893, with the result that it was absorbed by the New Haven road.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Two prominent Boston attorneys, Moorfield Storey and Sherman Whipple, were among the witnesses called to testify at today's hearing before the senate judiciary sub-committee regarding the fitness of Louis D.
Brandeis to be a member of the supreme court of the U. S.

The committee concluded its cross-examination of Sidney W. Winslow, president of the United Shoe Machinery company, regarding his charges of unprofessional conduct on the part of Mr. Brandeis and was prepared today to hear Messrs. Storey and Whipple and other witnesses regarding the Warren will and Lennox bankruptcy cases.

Asked as to Brandeis' reputation as a lawyer, Mr. Storey testified:
"I think his reputation in the Boston bar is that he is very capable, very energetic, and if to advance his objects, he is not scrupulous as to the methods, nor is he to be trusted."

Storey had been summoned by the committee in its inquiry into the fitness of Mr. Brandeis for the supreme court. Senator Warren told the witness that C. W. Barron of Boston, had said Brandeis was once employed to help wreck the New England railroad.

"I think that is true," said Mr.
Storey. He proceeded to describe the New England as a competitor of the New Haven between Boston and New York.

"Shortly before the spring of 1892," he said, "the New Haven began to harass the New England,
which ran part way to New York over the New Haven tracks. The New Haven first refused to advance freight for the New England. It seriously interfered with its trains and there was every indication that it was the purpose of the New

GIVEN TO A NEWSPAPER

Signed "Jean Crones"— Details Talled With Facts Found By Detectives—
Man Said To Have Worked With Crones, Reported He Saw Him Last Night In Boston.

Chicago, Feb. 17.—Jean Crones, charged with putting poison in soup
served at a banquet at which Archbishop Mundelein and hundreds of other prominent persons were guests, has been seen in Boston, according to reports reaching the police officials here today. The Chicago authorities have been in communication with eastern detectives
and Crones' arrest is expected soon.
It was said that Chicago officials were informed that Crones was seen at the South Terminal in Boston shortly before midnight last night.

Detectives today set about investigating details of an alleged confession sent to the New York Times
by a man who signed the name
"Jean Crones." They said information gathered here tallied with the acts explained in the alleged confession.

The white substance found in Jean Crones' room was asbestos not gun-cotton, the police announced today.

The police said the real nature of the material was discovered a few days ago, but no announcement that it was asbestos had been made.

Fritz Schoenfeldt, believed to have been a friend of Crones, was arrested today. The police said he would be questioned concerning Crones' New York acquaintances.

Captain Nicholas Hunt, chief of detectives, announced today his conclusion that Jean Crones is hiding
in New York or Boston.

It was at first thought possible by him that Crones' letter, published today might have been written in Chicago and sent to New York,
there to be remailed, but investigation has convinced the officers that the chief is in the east.

According to Captain Hunt, there is a large colony of anarchists in Boston.

Presence of a second poison mentioned in the Crones letter as having been put in the soup served at the banquet was discovered today in tests by the city chemists. The poison found was of a metallic nature, according to chemists, which would quickly induce excessive nausea and so tend to counteract the effect of the other poison mingled with it.

BOSTON POLICE ARE FOLLOWING CLUES
GIVEN OF POISONER.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Boston, Feb. 17.—The police today were investigating a report that Jean Crones, for whom the Chicago police are searching in connection with the alleged poisoning of soup at a banquet to Archbishop Mundelein had been seen in this city. According to the report a man who said he formerly worked with Crones in Chicago saw some one whom he claimed to recognize as Crones, near the South Station.

He said that when he spoke to him the man told him to mind his own business and hurried away in the direction of the South Boston district.

Early in the day the police had found nothing to substantiate the report.

LORIMER'S TRIAL ON CHARGE'S OF WRECKING BANK

(Associated Press Telegram)

Chicago, Feb. 17.—The trial of William Lorimer, former United States senator on charges of wrecking the La Salle Trust and Savings bank while president of the institution is set for today in the criminal court. It is estimated that more than two weeks will be required in the selection of a jury. Argument on a motion to consolidate all of the indictments pending against the defendant probably will precede the examination of venemore.

C. B. Mundy, vice president of the La Salle Trust and Savings bank
when it failed was convicted recently on a charge of conspiracy to wreck the bank and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

Pending an appeal he is at liberty
on bail.

NOT GIRL'S POISONER, SAYS COLLEGE
STUDENT; HIS LAWYERS PLAN DEFENSE

Lawyers for Will Orpet, University of Wisconsin student held for murder at Waukegan, Ill., will set up as one of the mainstays of his defense the allegation that Marian Lambert knew two weeks before she died of poison in the woods at the edge of Lake Forest that she was not in a condition that threatened disgrace. Knowing that, it is argued, she would not have taken poison from Orpet, believing it medicine to relieve her condition.

Manager of Great German Shipping Company Takes Pessimistic View of Such Situation.

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Feb. 17.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company, says that the manager of one of the greatest German shipping companies in an interview in the Bremen Tageblatt, expresses a most pessimistic opinion concerning the effects of a possible breach of relations between Germany and the United States. This shipper, who the dispatch says is believed to be Albert Ballin, director general of the Hamburg-American steamship company
is quoted as follows:

"A breach of Germany's relations with America would have a most serious effect. All America's money and munitions would be at the disposal of the entente allies. We should have to take over the feeding of the Belgians, and America's attitude probably would induce other neutrals to attack us. All our ships would finally be interned in American ports. This would represent taking away enormous wealth from us.

Our plight would be most difficult. When the war is over Germany will have to replenish her stocks of raw materials. Do not let us entertain any illusions with regard to England. She will continue commercial warfare long after military operations are over. She will take away all our trade with south Africa and Australia and it will take years for our passenger service to reach a condition anything like that which existed before the war."

Richmond, Va., Feb. 17.—The Seaboard Air Line's Florida Limited Number 10, northbound was wrecked
today at Kingsland Bridge, ten miles south of here while running at high speed.

No one was killed but fourteen persons were badly injured and others less seriously hurt.

NEW PLANT

AT HOMER WILL BE BUILT SOON AT ESTIMATED
COST OF $75,000

For Purpose of Extracting Gasoline, to be Delivered to B. & O. Railroad at Utica.

The Ohio Fuel Supply company will in the very near future install a gasoline extracting plant at Homer
at an estimated cost of $75,000.

The engineer's office of the company, 52 West Gay street, Columbus, is now working on the estimates and plans for the new plant.

An official of the company stated
this afternoon that the plant will be in operation in about four or five months, as it takes considerable time to install it. He said its method of extracting the gasoline from gas would be by absorption, and that very little machinery is employed in the operation.

The company has suffered considerable loss in the past due to the destroying agents in the gas. The agents eat through the pipes and are responsible for many main bursting. The absorption plant will extract the destroying agents, without effecting the heat unit value of the gas. Except for eliminating the destroying agents the new method
will have no bearing toward crippling the heating units in the gas.

This method of extracting the agents, while it has been in operation in West Virginia for the past three years, yet is practically a new

ASHBROOK BILL SELECTED OVER OTHER EIGHTEEN

(Special to The Advocate)

Washington, D. C., Feb. 17.—The invalid pensions committee today
after considering the nineteen pending bills relative to increasing widows' pensions, unanimously selected the Ashbrook bill which gives all civil war widows who have reached or will hereafter reach the age of seventy years twenty dollars per month. The proposed measure also restores widows who remarried to their pensionable status previous to their remarriage and also raises the marriage limitations from 1890 to 1905 and gives such widows twelve dollars per month. General Isaac R.
Sherwood delegated Mr. Ashbrook to have charge of the bill on the floor of the house.

WAR TIMES HAVE

New York, Feb. 17.—War times have brought about the beginning of the revolution in the corset industry according to Daniel Kops, president of the Corset Manufacturers' Association, which held its annual dinner here last night. Mr. Kops said American corset manufacturers were now for the first time selling large quantities of corsets in every country where they are worn. The corset man-aided by the admiration aroused

by American women who visit-

PARLIAMENT

WILL CONSIDER THE QUESTION OF REQUISITIONING MER-CHANT SHIPPING.

Premier Asquith Intends Taking New Vote of Credit in Commons Next Monday.

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Feb. 17.—The question of requisitioning merchant shipping is one of the important matters which came up for consideration when the debate on the address in reply to the king's speech is resumed today in the house of commons. The amendment in this connection is presented by Basil Edward Peto, member for the Devizes division of the Wiltshire, who expresses regret in the amendment that the government "has not taken measures to utilize economically the available tonnage and put it under the control of a central expert authority with full power to requisition and direct the movements of all vessels and to fix and limit the remuneration for transportation services of all kinds during the war."

It is expected that an important reply will be elicited to this amendment by Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade in behalf of the government.

It is understood that it is the present intention of Premier Asquith to take the new vote of credit in the house of commons next Monday.

Great Britain has not refused to allow food to reach Poland according to a statement made by Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, in reply to a question in the house of commons today.

The foreign minister added that the entente allied governments had been approached with a request to permit food to be sent to Poland under neutral control; but that the allies had replied they could not consider the question until the various "methods of spoliation" adopted by the central powers had ceased.

To do otherwise, he said would be merely to supply food to the Germans.

Under the guise of a question to Sir Edward Grey, Laurence Ginnell, Nationalist member of parliament for the north division of Westmeath,
made the allegation that pressure
had been used by the entente allies to dissuade the Belgian government from accepting from Germany an offer to re-establish the integrity of Belgium, to restore her independence and fully compensate her for damages sustained.

This brought a blunt reply from the foreign secretary who said:
"The statement made in question is entirely untrue."

Sir Edward added that he believed the statement of an offer being made to Belgium was also untrue.

IN LINER ARABIC CASE

President Wilson And Secretary Lansing Today Are Considering New Proposals Designed To Settle The Lusitania Controversy—Officials Look For Continued Negotiations.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Feb. 17.—Secretary Lansing today accepted the Lusitania agreement as acceptable to the United States insofar as it relates to that case, but asked Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador for assurances that Germany will not carry its policy of sinking merchant ships without warning to liners even if they carry defensive armament.

The question of what constitutes defensive armament is to be determined later in a way not yet agreed upon. It is suggested that the United States may propose that guns mounted on the stern of the ships and capable of being swung from 15 to 30 degrees in either direction might come within that class.

It was stated authoritatively that Germany, because of its unusual position cannot and will not accept the suggestion of the United States. It now stands that liners carrying arms shall be immune from attack under previous assurances.

Secretary Lansing said today that before the state department came to a conclusion on the effect of the new submarine announcement it wanted to study the appendices attached to the notification which were coming by mail. The appendices contain descriptions of alleged attacks on submarines by merchant ship and a copy of the so-called secret British admiralty instructions to masters to destroy submarines
when possible. The department wants to examine the appendices also in relation to assurances given to the United States by the entente allies that liners sailing from American ports would dismount their guns.

German officials here come to the conclusion today that the state department considers that their new memorandum has upset to some extent the question of reprisals in the war zone about the British Isles and also that of cruiser warfare in the north sea.

Washington, Feb. 17.—President Wilson and Secretary Lansing were considering today the new German proposal designed to settle the Lusitania controversy to determine whether its terms would be nullified
by the announced intention of the Teutonic powers to sink all armed enemy merchant ships without warning after February 29.

American officials expressed the opinion that the submarine controversy with Germany cannot be closed until assurances are given that the safety of neutrals and non-combatants at sea, have not been altered
by the latest German declarations. They fear that the United States is confronted with a long series of diplomatic exchanges and state that the situation is just where

Big Proportion of Population Illegitimate in Some of the Countries in South America

(Associated Press Telegram)

Panama, Feb. 17.—One-fourth to one-half of the population of South American countries are illegitimate,
according to Dr. Robert E. Speer, secretary of the American Presbyterian Board, who is presiding over the Congress on Religious Work in Latin-America in session here.

Dr. Speer's statement is included in the report of the Commission on Women's Work which was presented to the congress today.

Terrible pictures of the lot of the women of the poorer classes in Latin-America are drawn in the report. Referring more particularly to the west coast of the southern half of the continent the Commission says:

"The birth rate is large, but the death rate among infants is also great. From 40 to 90 per cent die under two years of age. The causes are an unguarded milk supply, an appalling diffusion of venereal diseases and a state of morals which leaves half of the children to be raised by an unmarried mother
without aid from the father.

"Miss Florence E. Smith speaks of the women of Colombia, as they work with pickaxe and shovel on the highway, or stagger under burdens too heavy to be borne—of the sixty out of every hundred women in the whole continent who have lost honor, self-respect and hope—of the mothers of the 40,767 babies who died in Chile alone in 1909, less than one year old, because of alcoholism and antihygienic conditions."

As a further illustration of the enormous infant death rate in the southern republics the Commission draws a comparison with the rate in the registration areas of the United States, where, in 1911, 18 per cent of the total deaths are those of infants. As against this 41 per cent of the total deaths in Chile in the same year were of infants; in Valparaiso the official figures were 323 per thousand, in Concepcion, 48 per cent, Valdivia 43 per cent.

In striking contrast to the conditions prevailing among the poorer classes of the populations the Commission finds that the Latin-American women of the wealthier ranks of society live on as high a plane as any of their sisters in the North or in Europe. Georges Clemenceau, former premier of France, quoted

SWAMP ROOT SAVES KIDNEY SUFFERERS

You naturally feel secure when you know that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, is absolutely pure and contains no harmful or habit producing drugs.

The same standard of purity, strength and excellence, prescribed by Dr. Kilmer many years ago, is maintained in every bottle of Swamp-Root.

Swamp-Root is scientifically compounded from vegetable herbs. It is not a stimulant and is taken in teaspoonful doses. It is not recommended for everything. According to verified testimony it is nature's great helper in relieving and overcoming kidney, liver and bladder troubles.

If you suffer, don't delay another day. Go to your nearest drugstore now and get a bottle. All drug stores sell it in two sizes—fifty cents and one dollar.

However, if you wish first to try this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention The Newark Advocate.

Ends Dry, Hoarse or Painful Coughs Quickly

A Simple, Home-Made Remedy. Inexpensive but Unequalled.

The prompt and positive results given by this pleasant tasting, home-made cough syrup has caused it to be used more than any other remedy. It gives almost instant relief and will usually overcome the average cough in 24 hours.

Get 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) from any drug store, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This makes a full pint—a family supply—of the most effective cough remedy at a cost of only 54 cents or less. You couldn't buy as much ready-made cough medicine for $2.50. Easily prepared and never spoils. Full directions with Pinex.

The promptness, certainty and ease with which this Pinex Syrup overcomes a bad cough, chest or throat cold is truly remarkable. It quickly loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes a painful cough in a hurry. With a persistent loose cough it stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the annoying hacking.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quinine and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

COLLAPSE OF OPERA HOUSE KILLED NINE

FIRE FOLLOWED DESTROYING BUSINESS BUILDINGS IN TEXAS TOWN

Few Early Arrivals at Art Exhibition by the City Schools Reduced Fatalities.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Mexia, Texas, Feb. 17.—Search of the ruins of the Mexia opera house which collapsed last night and of business buildings destroyed in the resulting fire failed to add to the list of victims and the number of dead early today remained at nine.

Three of the dead were killed in the wreck of the opera house which had been opened for an art exhibition by the city schools under the auspices of the mothers club.

Because of the early hour only a few persons had arrived when the accident occurred and this undoubtedly prevented a greater loss of life. The victims killed in the opera house were A. B. Weisner, superintendent of the city schools, Mrs. Weisner, and Professor A. C. Bruton. Others in the building escaped with injuries.

Two doors from the opera house, six men were killed in the Mecca cafe, which was destroyed by the fall of the opera house, gas explosion which accompanied it, and the resulting fire. Before the fire was checked a number of business buildings had burned with a loss of $75,000.

Tant Prosecutor Heston, Wakefield obtained hundreds of letters from his "secretaries," to whom he gave high sounding titles and whose money he took, he said. "To insure their good faith."

The Wakefield case has attracted much publicity throughout the country because Wakefield's operations were so wide-spread, and because of the unusual character of his alleged crooked methods.

Posing as a "holier than thou" civic uplifter, Wakefield would burst upon a town with a loud and silver flow of language, and accompanied, generally by his "assistants" who were either his dupes or his confederates.

He was possessed of certain abilities in a high degree, according to the prosecutor's address to the jury. He was a man of education, the prosecutor said, Wakefield himself admitted that he came of a good family.

Instead of using his undoubted abilities for good, Wakefield, the prosecutor said, perverted his talents, and finally stooped to taking money from poor young men whom he had induced to become employees of his American Civic Institute.

The American Civic Institute was an institution in which every man, woman and child in the community could have an interest and take a part," according to Wakefield. He published literature telling about his scheme in glowing terms. He published also, a course in "civics" which was to be sold at $25.

The day before he was brought to trial, Wakefield, seated in a cell in the county jail, said that his wife had left him and that he didn't know where she was.

as saying regarding the higher class of women in Argentina.

"The family life appears to be stronger in the Argentine than, perhaps, in any other land. The rich take pleasure in having large families. The greatest affection prevails, and the greatest devotion to the family roof-tree. The women enjoy a reputation, which seems well justified, of being extremely virtuous. In their role of faithful guardians of the hearth they have been able to silence calumny and inspire universal respect by the purity and dignity of their lives."

Similar tributes are paid to the women of the richer classes in the other southern republics. The Commission points out, however, that there is practically no middle class in South America and that a girl who has to work for her living is treated with much disdain, even women teachers having little social standing.

One result of the Commission's investigation is the conclusion that a great change is coming in Latin America in regard to the status of the women. The "women movement" is said to be making steady progress. Women are gradually taking a more active part in politics and business and the efforts of the missionary organizations to relieve the lot of the poorer classes are declared to have met with most gratifying results, although seriously hampered by lack of workers and funds.

Many governmental leaders in Latin America frown on the work of the churches and contend that religion leads to immorality, according to a report submitted today to the Congress on Religious Work, which is in session here, by the Commission on Co-operation and Promotion of Unity.

At the same time the Commission reported that the great majority of the public men of the Southern republics were fully alive to the urgent importance of raising the moral character and ideals of their fellow citizens and were willing to

"GOD A DEVIL" WRITES WOMAN TO HER LOVER

IF HE ALLOWS TWO PEOPLE TO LOVE AND THEN SEPARATE THEM.

Rich Pittsburgh Hardware Dealer Defendant in Breach of Promise Suit at Canton.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Canton, O., Feb. 17.—"God is a Devil, if he allows love to come between two persons and then takes one away from the other," wrote Mrs. Ellen Canine of Indianapolis to R. H. Jacob, rich Pittsburgh hardware dealer, she admitted on the stand here today when the letter was read in her breach of promise suit against Jacob. She asks $50,000 heart balm.

Mrs. Canine was on the stand today under cross-examination. She admitted writing a letter in which she had never exacted a promise from Jacob and he had never made her one. She concluded that this referred to his promise to break his relations with another woman and not a promise which she says he made to marry her.

She says he met her in Indianapolis, took her to supper and to the theatre and spent the time from midnight to morning afterwards trying to persuade her to marry him. She finally gave in, she says. This was in 1914, the second day after they met. She afterwards visited him in Pittsburgh, she says.

FURNITURE MEN MEET NEXT YEAR IN COLUMBUS, O.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Toledo, Feb. 17.—At a meeting this morning, following the 13th annual banquet last night of the Ohio Retail Furniture Dealers' Association, the following officers were elected:

President, John L. Young, Cleveland; first vice president, Carl Hildebrand, Toledo; second vice president, Harry P. Cappell, Dayton; secretary-treasurer, C. M. Voorhees, Columbus.

Columbus was selected for the 1917 meeting.

A social gathering of all retail furniture dealers will be held annually during August at Cedar Point. It was decided.

Last night 75 members banqueted and listened to addresses by Harvey R. Young, of the Columbus Dispatch; O. K. Wheelock, Cleveland manufacturer, and George W. Stevens, Toledo.

it was several weeks ago and is described as "grave."

Announcement of a delay in the settlement of the submarine controversy was made by Secretary Lansing and came in place of the long expected announcement of the satisfactory conclusion of the Lusitania negotiations. The German communication had been presented by Ambassador Von Bernstorff in a form substantially acceptable to the United States.

Germany is prepared to contend that if passenger liners leaving American ports with defensive armament are to be immune from submarine attack without warning, as the German government promised last September, in the Arabic case, the Berlin government expects some assurances that the liners will not attack the submarines.

Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador has arranged to confer with Secretary Lansing today and he is expected to convey this view in reply to the secretary's statement of yesterday that it was desirable that the German government make a declaration that in carrying out its new submarine campaign of sinking armed merchantmen without warning after February 23, it intended to abide by the assurances it gave in the Arabic case that "liners" would not be attacked without warning unless they attempted to resist.

Such assurances as it is indicated Germany may now ask probably would apply only to Italian ships, as British passenger-carrying liners have not been armed even with the small guns allowed for defensive purposes, since the outbreak of the war.

President Wilson and Secretary Lansing today continued their study of the Lusitania agreement as it was formally submitted yesterday to determine whether any of its terms would be nullified by the principles of the newly announced submarine campaign.

AUSTRIAN NOTICE IS LIKE GERMANY'S

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 17.—The Austrian notice of intention to treat armed belligerent merchant ships as subject to attack without warning was received today by the state department from Ambassador Penfield in Vienna. It is dated February 10 and is in line with the German declaration on the same subject already published.

Haven road to destroy the New England.

In the spring of 1892, Mr. Brandeis brought a series of ten suits against the New England railroad in Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Rhode Island. He was acting ostensibly for N. F. Goldsmith, a Boston liquor dealer and small New England stockholder, and some associates.

The bills were signed to paralyze the financial operations of the New England railroad. One suit was to prevent the payment of dividends on preferred stock, another to prevent the issue of mortgage bonds and another attacked the New England's bases on certain branch lines.

In the following year the Massachusetts legislature investigated the relations of the New Haven and New England roads. It conducted the hearing. Mr. Brandeis testified there that he was counsel in all these suits which impaired the finances of the New England road, forcing it into receivers hands in 1893, from which it emerged as the property of the New Haven.

"The suits," while brought in the name of Goldsmith, were really brought in some other interests. Goldsmith was unable to pay the expense of the suits. It appeared that Judge W. J. Kelly of New York, now on the New York supreme court, was interested in the case. When I asked Mr. Brandeis if he made any charges to Goldsmith and his associates he admitted that he did not and said money was paid to him through Judge Kelly.

"It was apparent that the suits were not brought in the interest of his ostensible clients, Brandeis took exception from some outside source. The names of those directly interested never were disclosed but the result of the fight was that the New Haven road eventually took over the property of its competitor."

Mr. Storey testified that at the Massachusetts legislature investigation of the relations of the New Haven and the New England, Brandeis refused to tell who were his clients, unless Storey agreed that the facts would not be used in the suits. Storey said he could not consent.

"It is apparent to me," said Storey, "that it was clear to Mr. Brandeis that the ostensible parties to the suits were not the real parties, and that he made his charges and took orders from other parties who may have been persons or may have been the New Haven. The result was that the New England was wrecked. It is impossible for me to understand how Mr. Brandeis could

ALLEGED PLAN OF SOME MEXICANS TO HARASS CARRANZA

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 17.—Private advice to the war department today tell of an alleged plan of Mexicans on the American side of the border, particularly in California, and Texas, for an expedition to cross into Northern Mexico to embarrass the Carranza government. Major General Funston commanding the American forces on the border has been notified to take steps to prevent any violations of American neutrality.

NORTHERN STORM STILL BLOWING WITH UNDIMINISHED FURY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Amsterdam, Feb. 17.—(Via London.)—The northwesterly storm is still blowing with undiminished violence and the situation is described as critical. Reports from various places of the damage which has been done are causing grave apprehension.

Monnikendam has suffered considerably. The water rose a foot yesterday in this town in the province of North Holland, a few miles from Amsterdam and is still rushing in.

At Volendam twenty houses have been abandoned. The railway embankment between Fumoren and Oostzaal, in the same province, has been destroyed, threatening a fresh catastrophe.

Breaking of the dikes around Westinder Lakes at Aalsmeer, eight miles southwest of Amsterdam, appears to be inevitable.

The Goldsmith estate, he said, later sued Austin Corbin, then president of the Long Island railroad, for the use of Goldsmith's name in the suits and that the New Haven paid $20,000 to settle.

Chairman Chilton wanted to know what was the specific complaint against Mr. Brandeis. Mr. Storey responded he considered it unethical for a lawyer to do anything the truth of which would prejudice his case in court.

Senator Chilton suggested that the incident took place some twenty years ago, but Storey charged Brandeis had done the same thing in the more recent Ballinger-Pinchot investigation.

Mr. Brandeis announced that he was appearing for Mr. Glavis, whereas he was paid by Colliers Weekly, declared Mr. Storey.

"How do you know by whom he was paid?" asked Senator Walsh.

"Only by hearsay,"

"What difference did it make who paid him?"

"If he had announced he was employed by a newspaper, he would not have been listened to as he was."

Senator Fletcher observed that Austin G. Fox, a New York lawyer, was appearing now before the committee on behalf of those making charges, and that Glavis was entitled to have a lawyer at the Ballinger hearing. Storey observed that Fox was not appearing for anybody but those who paid him.

Senator Walsh questioned the witness about Mr. Brandeis' criticism of the New Haven's conduct of its road.

"As a citizen of Boston, and a locker-on closer than Venice, would you like to add your opinion to that of Mr. Barron that Mr. Brandeis was employed to wreck the New Haven railroad?" inquired Senator Walsh.

"No sir," responded Mr. Storey.

Regarding the Warren will case in which Hollis R. Bailey, a Boston lawyer, charged that Mr. Brandeis was guilty of unprofessional conduct, Mr. Storey defended Mr. Brandeis. He said it was common practice for lawyers in such cases to represent all members of a family even if some of their interests did clash.

"In that case," he said, "if I had been in Mr. Brandeis' place I think I would have pursued the same course he did."

Sherman L. Whipple, another Boston attorney concerned in the Warren will case, in response to questions by George W. Anderson, representing Mr. Brandeis, made this statement:

"As a lawyer Mr. Brandeis is able and learned. As a man he is most striking and remarkable and has been unselfish and unswerving in his devotion to the social, moral and industrial uplift of the lowly and less fortunate of our people. I believe that on the bench of the supreme court of the United States, he will exert a strong influence in establishing the ideals to which he has been devoted in his recent years."

VEGETABLE CALOMEL

Vegetable calomel, extract of the root of the old-fashioned may-apple plant, does not salivate. As a liver stimulant, it's great. It's a perfect substitute for ordinary calomel (mercury); in fact, it's better, because its action is gentle instead of severe and irritating—and it leaves no mean, disagreeable after-effects. Physicians recognize this and prescribe may-apple root (podophyllin), they call it daily.

Combined with four other standard, all-vegetable remedies, may-apple root may now be had at most any druggist's in convenient sugar-coated tablet form by asking for Santalaxatives. If you forget the name, ask for the box that has the picture of the soldier on it.

These tablets are small, easy to take and are really wonderful little performers.

They quickly clean out the poisons that are causing you headache, constipation, sour stomach, biliousness, dizzy spells, bad breath and coated tongue.

They are mild. They never gripe. And they are a bowel tonic as well as a cleanser and liver regulator. A 10c box should last one several weeks. A Physician's trial package (4 doses) will be mailed you free if you write mentioning this advertisement. The Santalax Remedies Co., 802 Madison Ave., Covington, Ky.

WHAT IS AN INTERNAL BATH?

If you were to ask a dozen people this question probably not one would answer correctly, although half a million Americans are now using it with a marked improvement in health and strength.

The Internal Bath of today is no more like the old-fashioned Enema than a Vacuum Cleaner is like a whisk-broom.

Now, by means of the "J.B.L. Cascade," simple warm water cleanses the Lower Intestine the entire length, removes all the poisonous waste matter therein, and keeps it as clean and pure as Nature demands it shall be for perfect health.

You will be astonished at your feelings the morning after taking an Internal Bath by means of the "J.B.L. Cascade." You will feel bright, confident and as though everything is "working right"—and it is.

It absolutely removes Constipation and prevents Auto-Intoxication.

GROWING BOYS GREAT ASSETS OF THIS CITY

Y. M. C. A. ENDEAVORS TO PUT RIGHT IDEALS INTO HIS MIND.

Preparations Continue for Annual State Convention to be Held in Newark.

Newark will have a good name or a bad one just as her boys grow up to be law abiding or lawless citizens. There was a day when the boy got all of his training at home. There was enough room in every back yard for each boy and his neighbors to find play room; but this day is past. Many boys in our city live in crowded communities or flats where places to play cannot be found. These are the boys who are found running the streets early and late. These are the ones that it becomes a part of the communities responsibility to help. The Y. M. C. A. as the right hand of the church reaches out to assist the community to meet this responsibility. It furnishes a Christian play house, where games and sports and clean social life up-right and many qualities are taught. The following quotations from life show how this work makes its impression upon such boys.

"He was a working boy and had a good time and absorbed right ideals at the 'Y' after quitting time. One evening he remarked 'My boss could afford to make a good big contribution to this club.' 'Why?' was asked. He replied, 'Well you see, since I've been coming here I've got some different ideas and I don't do any more 'Government Work.'"

Then he explained that "government work" meant to steal time from your employer to do work for your self.

"He was just a kid with a liberal splattering of freckles and a turned up nose. He lived with relatives one of whom at least, didn't believe in wasting time in bathing, and expressed himself in the following manner regarding the time the boy 'Wasted' in this way. 'Goot' Lort if that boy git a bat once a month that's enough for him.' But he kept on bathing and swimming and doing the other things the boys of the Y. M. C. A. did.

He graduated from High school one of the most popular members of his class and was the best player of the High School Basketball team that won the City and the State Championship for two years and he was considered not only the best but the cleanest player in the High school league. One evening in conversation with a number of fellow in the Club Rooms he said, 'Well fellows, I'll tell you, I never went into a game of Basketball in my life without first praying over it.'"

HEAVY LOSSES OF BRITISH REPORTED BY CONSTANTINOPLE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Constantinople, Feb. 17. — V. London.—The losses of one of the British expeditions in Mesopotamia in a battle with the Turks near Battha west of Korna, amounted to 2,000 officers and men, according to an official announcement given out by the Turkish war department under date of February 16.

The statement also says that the Russians lost 5,000 men killed in a three day battle on the Causasian front.

The text of the statement follows: "Trak front: One of our seaplanes flew over the enemy artillery positions at Kut-el-Amara, dropping twelve bombs which had great effect."

"After his defeat in the battle near Battha west of Korna, the enemy left many dead on his road of retreat. The enemy losses in that battle as established up to the present amounted to 2,000 men and 300 animals.

"Caucasian front: in the fighting which has been in progress during the last three days despite cold weather and snow the enemy lost 5,000 dead and sixty prisoners.

"Dardanelles: A cruiser, a monitor and a torpedo boat of the enemy on February 13, fired twenty shells on Tekke Burnu and then withdrew before the fire of our coast batteries. The fire of the warships did no damage.

"Near Aden, in the woods between Sheikh Hosman and Elualle an enemy reconnoitering detachment was ambushed, nearly all the men being killed.

"Those who escaped fled in the direction of Sheikh Hosman, leaving behind all their baggage."

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES

CAMPAIGN BULLETIN NO. 4

The campaign committee held its first meeting in the council chamber of the city hall yesterday afternoon. There were forty members present and a number more telephoned their regrets at being absent for previous engagements, but promised their services for the campaign. More work is to be used, and volunteers may send their names to the chairman of their respective wards.

The first item given to consideration was the need to be met. There are six classes of people in our community who need help.

1. There are thirty-five widows registered at our office, the most of them having children. Some of these are entirely dependent upon the community and are unable to help themselves. Some have small pensions but not enough to support them and are unable to work. Some are added relatives, but they are unable to apply the entire need. They are ad must remain a community charge.

2. Deserted families. We have registered thirteen deserted families in our community who are partly dependent. The most of these have family to support, and the only income is the mother's work. There is much need at the present time for his class.

3. The aged and infirm. We are supplementing the income of a number of this class and more help is needed to care for them. Sickness and old age have combined to render his class almost entirely helpless and dependent.

4. The "near unemployable." We have more than our share of men and women in the community who belong to this class. They are below grade for factory work and there are but few places they can fill in local industries. They are dependent almost entirely upon odd jobs in town and on the farms, and at this time of the year they find it quite impossible to earn a living for their families. Many of them are crippled by disease, others are suffering from accidents. The earning capacity of all of them is inadequate to meet the demands of their families.

5. The out of work class. Industrial conditions are much better than last year and are better in this community than in some other sections of the country. It is true also, that we have a surplus of men over positions. There are good men in town who have lost their position through sickness, there are others who have been laid off by a shortage of work. Ultimately they will get back to work, but a break of two to three weeks in the earnings of such men is a serious condition, especially when they have large families.

6. The families rendered destitute by men who drink. We have such families and so long as society provides the means for wrecking homes, so long must society pay the lamages. We are dealing with such men as effectively as the agencies at our command enable us to do, but, although we do our best, there is always the uncertain factor of when such a man will drop his work, draw his back pay, and go off on a drunk. He leaves his family destitute; the rent due, and comes back empty handed. We, while dealing with the man, cannot allow the mother and children to go unprovided for.

Our task in relation to these classes and conditions is two-fold. The first is to render emergency aid, both directly and through affiliated agencies. This we are seeking to do, and at the present time the demand made upon us could not be fully met on less than $100 a week. The present condition of sickness and of other forms of need, requires us to be prepared to meet the situation until warm weather. We wish also to provide at this time for the coming year, and the committee that calls upon Newark next week hopes to secure funds to meet all needs for a year.

The second part of our task is—to keep working at conditions, and to educate for community betterment, and plead for community co-operation in order that Newark may free itself of the disease of poverty, with all contributing and resulting diseases. Our committee will be provided with literature to show what we have done, and to suggest how we are planning for the future. We bespeak for them a sympathetic hearing, and a generous response.

Please read tomorrow's bulletin.

FIVE MEMBERS OF ONE FAMILY SENT TO PENITENTIARY

Twin Falls, Idaho, Feb. 17.—Five members of one family including the father, mother, two sons, and a stepson, are to be taken to the penitentiary today to serve terms of six months to fifteen years for burglary and receiving stolen goods. The prisoners are J. D. Ross and his wife, sentenced to serve from six months to five years, and one son sentenced to serve from six months to one year for receiving stolen goods. Another son and Ross' stepson, Orville Duncan, were given sentences of from one to fifteen years for burglary.

Three young children of the couple, including a baby three weeks old, will be taken to a children's home in Boise.

ESTABLISHED IN 1820

Entered as Second Class Matter March 10, 1882, at the postoffice at Newark, Ohio, under Act of March 4, 1879.

The Lenten meditations of many people consist of plans for the clothes that shall dazzle society next summer.

If Justice Hughes doesn't shave those whiskers, people will be calling him the Carranza of the United States.

Have these students who are so anxious for military training in schools stopped to reflect that the girls couldn't drill with them?

After arguing that women should not be allowed to run automobiles, many men will proceed to take a nipper to clear their heads while driving home.

The motorists are not expecting to run less speedy cars to offset the high price of gasoline, as of course their wives will be glad to get along without new dresses.

The National Bird.

Some of the pacifists have recently been expressing their dislike of the eagle, used as a national American symbol. To their minds, the eagle is a bird of prey, a robber and a thief, arrogant and overbearing. They regard him as unworthy to represent peace loving, industrious America.

The eagle is of course a militaristic bird. His great power and dauntless courage make him a typical fighter. His picture displayed on the banners of Ancient Rome gave the battling legions confidence and courage.

This aspect of the eagle's nature seems inappropriate to our national habits. But the eagle also stands for a marvelous clear vision. He rises to vast heights, and his clear seeing eye overlooks the whole landscape. Our prosperity and social advances are due to the clearness with which our people have discerned certain truths which the Old World has been slow to recognize.

Army Sanitation In Case Of War.

War, as it seems to most people, is a conflict of marksmanship and strategy in the moving and distribution of troops. But even more it is a question of protection of the health of the men.

Disease usually kills in war four men to every one killed by bullets. In the Spanish war, disease killed 13 to every one killed by Spanish arms.

Wonderful records in military hygiene were made in the Russo-Japanese war on both sides. The Japs lost but 21,000 odd by disease, to 55,000 in battles. The Russians lost 12,000 by disease, to 31,000 by bullets.

The Japs won that great conflict primarily by their hygienic efficiency. They had a sanitary division of 44,000 men, some of whom went ahead of the troops in every scouting party. The water in wells and springs was analyzed. Meats, vegetables, and fruits were tested. Towns having contagious diseases were quarantined. Lectures were given to the soldiers, about when to drink

Daily History Class—Feb. 17.

1801—Election as president of the United States decided in the house of representatives. Thomas Jefferson and Aaron Burr had received 73 electoral votes each. Jefferson was chosen president.

1913—Cincinnati's Heine Miller (Joan Miller), the "poet of the Sier-ras," died; born 1841.

1915—Great Britain seized the American ship Wilhelmina, carrying wheat to Germany.

(Engineering Magazine.)
A shipment of flour to Egypt is stopped at the dock because others need the ships that had contracted to carry it, and our shipper is helpless because of the war clause in his contract. A large manufacturer has 100 cases of goods returned to his factory because a bond is exacted in connection with a wholly neutral shipment of goods, the character of which is not questioned, which makes it impossible to continue the shipment. When in normal dependence upon a contract another shipper forwards goods to your port for foreign transit, the vessel that was to take them is commandeered by its government, and our shipper protests in vain. In Brooklyn a large shipment is refused transit because the shipper has not signed a certain agreement having nothing to do with the goods which are refused. Even a shipment from New York to Manila (between two ports of the United States, it will be noted) is refused transportation unless the shipper will sign an agreement as to the nationality of the consignee. You will observe that it is not a question of rates, or even in all cases of vessels, but rather since we must depend on ships of alien ownership to carry our goods, it is clear that when the interest or duty of those alien owners requires them to put their own necessities first, we helplessly stand aside. Just so far as these things go we are not an independent people. We do our trade by the consent of others, when it pleases them to have us do it, and to the extent that it pleases them to have us do it, and under rules which they lay down. That is the condition in which we now stand.

Mme. Melba's Plan.

(New York Globe.)
Mme Melba who was recently appointed as a Lady of Grace to the Order of St. John of Jerusalem by King George in gratitude for her efforts in behalf of the various hospitals devoted to the British wounded, has just made an announcement of the greatest interest to us, to wit: that she will soon devote herself to teaching young girls without means how to sing. For this purpose she will buy an estate near San Francisco.

"So many voices are raised each year," said the soprano, "by the wrong kind of training that I feel I simply must put out a re-training hand. I shall regard the girls as my wards. I shall consider it a privilege to teach them personally." Mme Melba is one of the last beneficiaries of the golden age of song, and what she has to tell of her method of singing should prove priceless.

When a singer retires, a life embracing the samut of activity, she has, as a rule, no desire to "settle down." There have been exceptions. Mme Pasta retired to a peaceful retreat on Lake Como, and Mme Patti to the simple pleasure of quiet married life. But those who, like Mme Viardot-Garcia, have devoted themselves to teaching are the much greater number. In Mme Melba's case the plan assumes greater importance as she, already a rich woman, has no desire to add to her fortune thereby.

Vastness Of South America.

(World Outlook.)
The vastness of South America is the first thing we must understand. I travel about 30,000 or 40,000 miles each year trying to cover my ground. It takes me longer to go between the extreme points, from Panama by steamer down the west coast and on through the Straits of Macellan to Asuncion, Paraguay, than it would take to go from San Francisco to Cairo and back to Glasgow.

You think of Bolivia as a little country. It is as big as Germany, Austria and England. Peru is as large as all the United States from Nova Scotia to Indiana, from Canada south to the gulf. Argentina equals all the United States west of Omaha. Brazil is a United States, with another Texas added. The resources of that vast area are in keeping with the bigness of the continent.

You know, at least vaguely, of the minerals—gold, silver, tin, copper, vanadium, bismuth, tungsten, the diamond mines of Brazil and the emerald mines of Colombia. Chile and Bolivia have been selling $130,000,000 worth of nitrates every year to fertilize the sugar beet fields of Germany. The black rich alluvial soil of Brazil, Argentina and Uruguay is as good as the best in Illinois and Iowa. Corn grows 70 bushels to the acre; wheat, 50 bushels; alfalfa, six tons a year.

In the latitude south of the equator, as far as Chicago is north of it, we have an Illinois soil and a Southern California climate. Such a combination comes as near to an agricultural paradise as there is in this poor world.

"What kind of barns do they build in the Argentine," a man asked me. "What do they want barns for?" I replied. "They do not need to keep cattle out of the cold. They do not have to cut and store their hay. It grows 12 months in the year."

Until People Care.

(Christian Herald.)

It was the very worst day of winter. Sleet was falling stingingly and the wind was sharp. At the door of a New York office building an old woman was sitting on the doorstep, ragged, bruised, helpless. One or two young men were mocking her and urging her to get up. One or two others were sympathetic. She made her way into the building and tried to crawl up the stairs. The elevator man did not know what to do. He was a converted man, a mission convert, and knew what it meant to be cold and homeless. It seemed terrible to drive the woman out into the storm again. But he had to report to the superintendent. He could not leave his elevator and could not have the woman dragging herself about the stairs. She reached the second landing and threw herself down, groaning. The superintendent arrived on the scene and said that he would telephone at once for the police wagon. Evidently the woman heard and understood, for she got up, staggered downstairs, went out the door and disappeared in the storm.

And not one woman, but hundreds in New York that night, were homeless, friendless, helpless; not one man, but thousands.

What to do?
Oh, a thousand things!
But first of all to care. We must get to the place where we grieve about it; where we suffer about it. Then perhaps something will be done.

To Make Men Of Boys.

(Colliers Weekly.)

The Chicago "Tribune," having polled 10,000 of its readers, finds that more than 50 per cent of the parents so questioned are for the introduction of military drill in the public schools. This vote, like the wonderful development of the boy scout movement, marks with broad emphasis the coming of a new spirit into American life. It means that not only native-born but foreign-born citizens realize the truth of President Eliot's saying that if democracy is to endure, it must be efficient in warfare as monarchy is. It means also that all sense of security from the Old World's rages is lost out of our thinking. We are in the press now—our adolescence and its rosy dreams are over. We must be prepared to defend our ideals or let them go. The danger is that in the development of this new department of this new department only halfway and slipshod measures will prevail. If we are to have military training in the schools, let it be thorough.

A Little Fun

Curious.

Stranger—I noticed your advertisement in the paper this morning for a man to retail imported canaries. Proprietor of Bird Store—Yes; have you had any experience in that line?

Stranger—Oh, no; I merely had a curiosity to know how the canaries lost their tails.—Indianapolis Star.

Heroic.

"You seem deeply attached to your little playmate."

"Her doll saved my doll's life," explained the doctor's daughter.

"How was that?"

"She consented to a transfusion of sawdust."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Forehanded.

Husband—I don't see, Estelle, how you could draw all your money out of the bank and spend it, when I specially told you that I wouldn't be able to give you any more for some time?

Wife—But I did it on purpose dear. Suppose the bank should fail?—Life.

Some Job.

"I've got a new job. I'm a barber at a soda fountain."

"A barber at a soda fountain?"

"Yes; I shave the ice."—New York World.

Husband With a Title.

"Mary Ann Simpkins has married a title."

"Go 'way! What is it?"

"Title to 'Ziar Hopper's 200-acre farm.'—Browning's Magazine.

That's Why.

Elderly Lady—Why don't you interfere to stop that dog fight?

Bystander—I was just again to mom; but you kin calm y'r tears now My dog is on top at last mum.—Buffalo Courier.

Real Cause for Growling.

You better stop yo' growlin' w'en you ain't got nuttin' 'tall ter growl 'bout. Des s'pose dat you wuz rich, an' had ter pay de income fer thinkin' dat a yethquake mought swaller de bank, wid all yo' money in it!—

Should Specify.

Some of those speakers before the congressional committees who say "the munition makers are back of the preparedness movement" should be more specific and say how much they think the President, Colonel Roosevelt and other prominent advocates are getting for selling out the nation.—Indianapolis Star.

Pointed Observations

Since Chicago has taken to poisoning the soup of its guests there isn't much safe nutriment left for strangers except the stockyards' breeze.—Grand Rapids Press.

"Many a man," said Uncle Eben, "thinks he can tell you what you ought to do when he can't tell what he ought to do himself."—Washington Star.

Rippling Rhymes

Affectation.

The men of simple manners please; they boast not of their pedigrees, or look profound, or put on side, or get swelled, up with futile pride. The wise man's every action states, "I'm just like other mortal skates; I'm here a while to toil and spin, and try to get my harvest in, and when I leave this vale of groans, like Tom and Dick, I'll make dry bones." It gives me stitches in the side to see a man swelled up with pride, assuming divers foolish airs, and who in every act, declares, "The clay I'm made of is so fine, there wasn't any more like mine. When I was formed, one fateful day, the Maker threw the mold away, and said, 'I've produced the masterpiece!'—I then took importance seems so steep that all the rest of us look cheap, laugh at yourself a while, my friend, and let your affectation end. Sit down in silence and review the foolish things you say and do, and realize, with many a jar, how blamed ridiculous you are!"

Defying Fate
A Madrigal met an Indigent;
The Indigent met her, too.
She sighed as she said, "I have always meant to marry a gent like you."

The Indigent said, "You're the sweetest girl I've seen," and he gave her a kiss; They married. The end was a lot of bal-Ly, poor little vaise like this.

Imagist Poetry
"I am tired, Beloved, of chafing my heart
Against the want of you;
Of squeezing it into little inkdrops,
And posting it."

The above is Miss Amy Lowell's idea of a revolt against the "monotonous, slavish following of tradition" in making poetry. We are not quite clear as to the law upon the subject, but do not believe Amy should be permitted to send her heart through the mail even if she should do it in successive shipments.

Nothing But Facts.
A Granville woman had an appointment a short time ago with a dressmaker in our enterprising little suburb, Columbus. When she got off the train at the Union Station she was much engrossed with the weighty decisions before her for she really didn't know how high to have the collar nor how short to have the skirt without danger of shocking the sensibilities of her home town.

So in her intense preoccupation she was deaf to the appeals of the cabbies as she passed down the line. One by one they entreated, they implored, they supplicated her to take a cab, with apparently no more effect that if they had besought the Sphinx. Finally as she approached the last one, he rushed out and desperately vociferated, "Here's yer cab, lady; anywhere in the city you want to go, lady. Southern Hotel, Neil House," and then in baffled rage as he gazed at her retreating figure, "Deef an' Dumb Asylum!"

MEDICINES, LIKE MEN

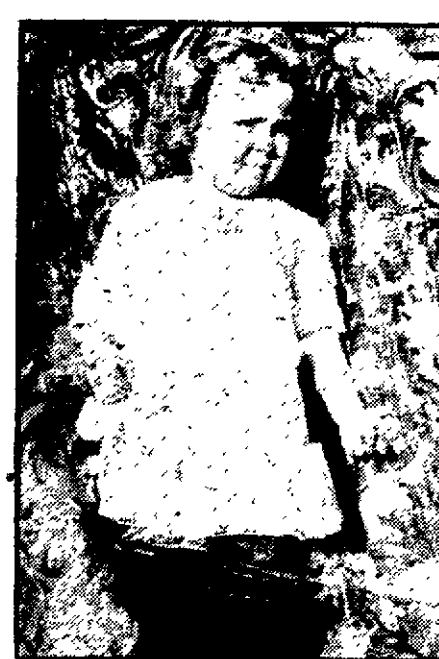

Have Character—Appearance, Quality, Merit, Results.

The first favorable impression made by Hood's Sarsaparilla is confirmed by continued use. It is a harmonious combination of compatible ingredients, perfect pharmaceutically—that is, it is the finest product of most skillful pharmacy. And in therapeutic value—or power to cure—it is one of the best medicines America has ever produced.

On the practical side, which of course is the most important to you, Hood's Sarsaparilla for forty years has been demonstrating its curative power in relieving complaints arising from impure blood, low state of health, poor digestion, inactive kidneys and liver.

For your humors, or for rheumatism, weak stomach, loss of appetite, that tired feeling—take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It will do you good.

BUSINESS IS BASED ON CONFIDENCE

A Theory Put Into Practice by Well Known Business Man

J. C. BRADY

A druggist has many opportunities to make lasting friends of his customers," said Mr. J. C. Brady, popular Rexall Pharmacist of Fall River, Mass. "The very nature of his business draws their confidence for little helpful suggestions on the matter of health. Many people have thanked me for recommending Rexall Ointment as the best relief for constipation and its resultant ills. Put up in dainty candy tablet form, they are pleasant to the taste and make an ideal laxative for the home—for men, women and children alike."

We have the exclusive selling rights for this great laxative. Trial size, 10 cents.

In Milady's Boudoir

By Gwen Sears

It often occurs to me that we are living in a very base and altogether bored age. This summing up of opinion is usually the result of an afternoon with some very modern young girl.

At the early age of eighteen these young women are so thoroughly bored with life that they care very little about the future. In fact, the future yawns ahead a weary monotone, even worse than the present, in their sophisticated opinion.

So many Europeans have remarked that there are no longer any young folks in America and I am beginning to believe they are right. You are probably acquainted with the little miss of twelve or thirteen. You look upon her as a child and carry candy to her and expect her to show you her dolls when you call.

She does nothing of the sort, however. She relates to you in a very bored voice and petulant manner, the doings of her girl's club or the latest dancing party she has attended. She tries to amuse you in a tolerant manner, but failing utterly, she lapses into a stifled mein of boredom and smirks at herself occasionally in the mirror.

You have lost your little friend. You have lost the curls that fell over her shoulders and the pigtail tied with ribbons. You have lost her childish laughter and her innocent questions. You may invite this new friend to tea and you may discuss modern topics with her, but the little girl is gone forever.

Why do mothers so willingly relinquish all claim on their baby girls? To whom should we turn the accusing finger?

Your Boys and Girls

Mothers often set a bad example for their children by the manner in which they misuse their teeth. For instance, many mothers bite thread, instead of breaking or cutting it. Everyone should know that this is injurious. By biting fibrous substances the enamel of the teeth may be cracked and ruined. Biting hard articles endangers the teeth in like manner.

To crack the enamel is not merely to make a crack. Each tooth is a living nerve and covered with a hard and thin coat of enamel. The saliva gets through this tiny fissure and is absorbed by the spongy structure, and the result is a filling if not the loss of a tooth.

The complete breaking up of solid food, and it's thorough mixture with saliva, is indispensable to solution in the stomach and intestines, upon which our vigor largely depends. Hence it is work while to eat quickly and evenly, and it leaves the dental specialists to prolong the life of the teeth.

Time to Beware.
"A man dat shows off too much smartness," said Uncle Eben, "gits so he enjoys about as much confidence as a sleight o' hand man in a poker game."—Washington Star.

Alkali in Soap Bad For the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulled coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulled coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Society

The Progressive Class club of White Chapel met at the home of John Pitzer, near Pleasanton, February 12. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather the following members and visitors were served a dainty luncheon, after the business period and a social hour was spent: Misses Eva Chism and Forest Crouse, Messrs. Vernon Cullison, Russell Warner, Lester Coyte, George Bell, Dewey Boser and John Pitzer. The visitors were Miss Gladys Kinney, Messrs. Earl Clark, Donna Dorey and Raymond Pitzer.

The next meeting will be at the home of Russell Warner, March 10.

The members of the Trinity Sewing Society will be entertained at the home of Mrs. D. J. Price in Hudson avenue on Friday afternoon.

The marriage of Miss Mabel Ebnor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ebnor, of Lakewood, to Mr. Carl A. Kegelmayr of Kenosha, Va., took place Wednesday morning in the Holy Rosary church at Columbus. Rev. Father F. W. Howard officiating. Miss Hilda Kegelmayr was maid of honor and Mr. Leo Getrue was best man. There were 100 guests. The bride has a number of relatives and is well known in Newark.

Miss Margaret Matthews entertained on Tuesday evening at her home in West Gough street, Mr. Vernon, with a Valentine party, honoring her guest, Miss Mabel Baker of Newark. The house was prettily decorated, a color scheme of red, white and pink being used. Delicious refreshments were served. Progressive euchre was played, six tables being arranged for the guests and the awards were made to Miss Baker and Miss Fern Strang.

A party of friends very pleasantly surprised Miss Margaret Scamery at her home in Oakwood avenue on Monday evening. The occasion being her fourteenth birthday anniversary. The guests were members of her Sunday school class, and she received many pretty gifts. The evening was spent with music and contests in the latter the prizes being awarded to Misses Bernice Proctor, Leora Jones and Loraine Chenoweth.

Refreshments were served the following: the teacher, Mrs. Davis, Misses Lorraine Chenoweth, Georgia Hatfield, Zetta Callentine, Lola Davis, Mabel Mason, Ruth Tanner, Leora Jones, Kathryn Frye, Bernice Proctor, Loraine Chenoweth, Verna Patterson, Margaret Gumble, Helen Willey, Anna Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Scanlan.

Saturday evening marked the date, the Jolly Stitches of Jackson town entertained their husbands. The supper was served by the women of the U. B. church and was delightful in all its appointments. After supper the club and guests were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Crow, where the evening was passed in games, contests, vocal and instrumental music.

The following members and guests were present: Messrs. and Mesdames E. V. Beard, Lewis Coffman, L. E. Crow, W. V. Davis, J. F. Davis, C. E. Frymure, M. C. Harter, T. C. Jury, W. E. For Flourish, Bronchitis and Sore Throat

Readers are advised not to dose the stomach. The best way to quickly overcome soreness in the throat or chest is to rub on the Mustarine, which all druggists keep on hand, the original yellow box for about 25 cents.

It is quicker and more efficient than any inhalant. Rub it on at night and relief comes by morning. True Mustarine is made by Berg Medicine Co., Rochester, N. Y. Every Day Etiquette

"Mamma, it is proper for me to thank a gentleman for taking me to a party?" asked Gladys.

"Yes indeed, you should thank him for giving you a pleasant evening," said her mother.

TRANSFORMS COMPLEXION, WISE SOCIAL FAVORS

"Had I been unable to transform my complexion so quickly, so completely, but one unique process had just ruined me. I never could have attended the Charity Ball. A certain social favorite, a picture of loveliness at the great event, told me this. 'I had been much run down,' she said. 'When I could not take, and attend the ball, the long party, a physician advised me. I suggested I get an ounce of mercuric iodine, which he said would cure me. I used it as directed and the result is apparent. In a week I had a new complexion. The wax took off the old skin so gradually, there was no discomfort. Now you see the fresh, bright under skin, with its youthful glow and expression.'"

"The worry lines and wrinkles, which had become quite numerous, I removed very easily by simply bathing my face every morning in a harmless lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered salicylic acid in a half pint of witch hazel. You see the result! My skin is smooth and firm, like school-girls."—Aileen in Town Talk.

Agony of Leg Sore Stopped by D.D.D.

Woman Tells Pitiful Story

"I am the mother of 12 children. I took a severe cold on my leg at the birth of last child. Five years ago I was every nearly dead. It was I was laid up for nearly five weeks with a doctor attending me who did nothing but treat those kind of things.

Doctors told me to lie in bed, but where there is a big family one can't do that. Then I heard about D.D.D. and as I used to hear my leg at night until it was a bleeding mass, I determined to try a bottle. I can't tell you the case it gave me. I never used to sleep for the pain. Many times I nearly fell with the decision in my head from want of sleep.

Now my leg is healed up, thanks to the blessed D.D.D. I never expected it to give me such relief. I only got it to save the leg. I was so glad I saw the big bottle sitting on the shelf. I bought it at once.

MOVIE MANAGER PLANTS BOMB IN RIVAL THEATRE

Wooster, Feb. 17.—According to Chief of Police Leiber and County Prosecutor Starn, J. McCormick, proprietor of the Alhambra theatre, a moving picture house, confessed last night to making two attempts to destroy the Wallace theatre, a rival moving picture house.

The Wallace theatre, owned by H. H. Zeigler, was damaged to the extent of $4000 by a blast of dynamite Dec. 16 and again was partially wrecked by a dynamite explosion Feb. 13. Both explosions occurred at 3 o'clock in the morning, when no one was in the theatre.

Leiner and Starn declare McCormick said he wrecked the theater because it was taking business away from his place. McCormick is held, pending further investigation.

Deputy Fire Marshals W. S. Carls, H. W. Murphy and Charles Miller, took eleven sticks of unexploded dynamite in the damaged moving picture theatre, wrapped in a strip of brown paper bearing an express company's sticker, from which the consignee name had been erased. They detected the words "Chicago, January 31, and found on inquiry from the express company's Chicago office a package had been shipped that day to McCormick. Later a piece of paper was found in McCormick's room which fit exactly the hole in the dynamite wrapper. McCormick was then arrested.

SURE WAY TO GET RID OF BLACKHEADS

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads and that is to dissolve them.

To do this get about two ounces of plain powdered norexin from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot wet sponge rub over the face and neck briskly—wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear, leaving the face clear and the pores of the skin—pinching and squeezing only, cause irritation, make large pores, and do not get them out after they have become inflamed. Norexin and the water simply dissolve the blackheads, they wash away, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition. Anybody troubled with these unsightly blemishes, try this simple method—Advertisement.

Searching For Men Who Are Eligible Under Derby Plan

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, Feb. 17.—Young married men who have not enlisted are soon to receive the attention of the war office which is considering the question of bringing pressure to bear upon them to induce them to join the army. All single men who attested under the Derby plan have been called up, and the compulsory military service act enrolls bachelors of military age who have not been exempted.

Most of them are men 20 and 40 years of age. The army lists numbers of married men below the 30 year mark who have not answered the appeal to take up arms and the authorities are searching for a method to bring them into line.

Iron Trade Review
Cleveland, Feb. 17.—The Iron Trade
Review today says:
The remarkable spectacle of railroads begging mills to take tonnage
of scrap plates and shapes for the manufacture of cars and not being able to place the orders continues as a striking feature of the iron trade. In the suburbs there is a similar position.
With the many orders which they have
on hand and the inability to get steel,
they are declining to take many contracts and numerous inquiries for new vessels are still pending. The very high prices for plate and fabricated
structural steel are holding back considerable new construction, but the
building of plants for the manufacture
of munitions goes on steadily.
The pig iron market is dull, but prices are firm. It does not seem probable, however, that there will be
future. Recent advances in finished
materials are as follows: Spikes, 11¢;
chain, 10¢; strip steel, 3¢; wire 4¢.
Warehouse prices have been advanced
from $2 to $3 per ton. Ferro-man-ganese continues to soar and as high

Wall Street
New York, Feb. 17.—Overnight advice suggesting a reopening of the controversy were reflected in the market. The closing was irregular, with opening, while conditions in Mexico
also made for increased uneasiness.
Smoking and other active issues, while
various shares were lower by substantial fractions, United States Steel yielded only slightly with no material change in price. Crude oil led the moderate rally before the end of the first half hour, but the undertone was uneasy.
Rallies here checked by the increased weakness of coppers and oils,
but the market reversed its course
later, renewed buying of Crude oil,
as well as Canadian Pacific, Baldwin Locomotive and American Can. Canadian closed at 20 points, the market
of two points and United States Steel also more than made up its early loss.
Dealings slackened visibly on the second half hour, but the market drifted idly until just before midday
when further general improvement was seen as a result of more favorable advice from Washington.
Bonds were irregular.
Metal shares, especially Butte
and Superior, and a mining, rose significantly in the last hour, while speculations, particularly Baldwin, were heavy. The closing was irregular.
Prices of various speculative issues underwent further downward revision
today, mainly as a result of professional offerings.

opening, while conditions in Mexico
also made for increased uneasiness.
Smoking and other active issues, while
various shares were lower by substan-

The remarkable spectacle of rail-
roads begging mills to take tonnage
of scrap plates and shapes for the manufacture of cars and not being able to
place the orders continues as a striking feature of the iron trade. In the suburbs there is a similar position.
With the many orders which they have
on hand and the inability to get steel,
they are declining to take many contracts and numerous inquiries for new
vessels are still pending. The very
high prices for plate and fabricated
structural steel are holding back considerable new construction, but the
building of plants for the manufacture
of munitions goes on steadily.
The pig iron market is dull, but
prices are firm. It does not seem
any advances in pig iron in the near future. Recent advances in finished
materials are as follows: Spikes, 11¢;
chain, 10¢; strip steel, 3¢; wire 4¢.
Warehouse prices have been advanced

BREAKS A COLD IN A FEW HOURS

FIRST DOSE OF "PAPE'S COLD COMPOUND" RELIEVES ALL GRIPE MISERY.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs. It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages; stops nasty discharge of nose running; relieves sick headache, dizziness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

"Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only 25 cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Don't accept a substitute.

PAPER MILLS IN UNITED STATES RUN FULL TIME

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Feb. 17.—Paper mills in the United States are operating to capacity and many of them are turning away orders, but the increase in the price of raw materials and the high price of labor has reduced the profits of the business, according to members of the American Paper and Pulp Association attending their annual convention here today.

Frank L. Moore, president of the association, said the high price of paper did not indicate that the manufacturers were making money. He added that the increase in the selling price would vary from three to forty per cent., according to the different grades. Mr. Moore expressed the opinion that many of the news print manufacturers would become members of the association as individuals instead of through their news associations.

WARSHIP

LARGEST IN UNITED STATES NAVY LEFT TODAY FOR FINAL TESTS.

Pennsylvania, Super-dreadnaught Can Fire, Single Broadside Weighing 18,000 Pounds.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Newport News, Va., Feb. 17.—The super-dreadnaught Pennsylvania, the largest battleship yet built for the United States navy, left the plant of the Newport News shipbuilding company early today for Rockland, Maine, to run the official government speed and endurance trials.

The first two days of the voyage will be devoted to tests of the warship by her builders and the government runs will begin February 22, with the standardization trial over the measured mile course off the Maine port.

The Pennsylvania, with her main battery of twelve 14-inch rifles mounted in four turrets on the center line, is declared by naval experts to be the most powerful sea fighter afloat. A broadside shell fire from her big guns would weigh 18,000 pounds, which is said to be greater than the broadside fire of the Queen Elizabeth of the British navy, which mounts eight 15-inch rifles.

The Pennsylvania is 600 feet long and will have a full load displacement of nearly 33,000 tons. She is 87 per cent completed, and will be ready for delivery within a few months.

NOT A PARTICLE OF DANDRUFF OR A FALLING HAIR

25-cent "Danderine" makes hair thick, glossy, wavy and beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yet—really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—your hair can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

THRONE

OF EGYPT DOES NOT SATISFY THE PRESENT KHEDIVÉ, IS REPORT.

Said that British Have Offered it to Another Who Also Has Declined the Proffer.

Berlin, Feb. 17.—(By wireless to Sayville.)—Advices from Cairo as given out by the Overseas News Agency state that the Khedive of Egypt has become discontented and that the British have offered the throne to Prince Yussuf, who has declined. The leader of the Senussi is said to have informed the British he was powerless to suppress the rebels.

The statement given out by the News Agency is as follows: "The Italian newspaper, Ordine of Ancona, publishes a report from Cairo, dated February 2, that the leader of the Senussi was requested by the British authorities to terminate the combats on the west frontier of Egypt, but replied that he was powerless against the rebels. The British said that the Redifs (first Egyptian reserves), who must be suppressed with energetic measures.

"The Khedive expressed to the British his intense pain that the Redifs had been fired on. He requested Major General Sir John Maxwell, commander of the British forces in Egypt that the British officers who gave the order to fire on the Redifs be court-martialed. In the meantime summoning of the Redifs had been postponed.

"The Khedive is discontented and weary. The British have offered the succession of the throne to Prince Yussuf, who declined."

The identity of the prince referred to is not clear. The reference may be to Youssef Sadik-Bey, chief of the Egyptian cabinet.

The World War a Year Ago Today—Feb. 17.

French and British launched heavy attacks against the Germans in Belgium and France. Both sides claimed success at certain points. Allied attempt to recover at St. Eloi, Belgium, ground lost to the Germans on the 14th was repulsed.

France reported gains of trenches and repulse of German counterattacks on the Aisne, along the Meuse and in Alsace.

CAPTURE

OF GREAT TURKISH STRONGHOLD BY THE RUSSIANS THRILLS FRANCE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Paris, Feb. 17.—The capture of the great Turkish stronghold of Erzerum, by the Russians is declared by the French newspapers this morning as the best item of news for the allies in many months. The military experts dwell upon the importance of the capture, declaring that it gives the Russians the key to Asia Minor, and is a victory which will inevitably have far-reaching consequences.

General Berthaut, in the Petit Journal, says it is not only a deadly blow to Turkey, but an event which cannot fail to have its effect on the other theatres of the war. Major De Civrieux says in the Matin: "The conqueror of Erzerum is of more importance than would be that of another fortress on the whole war theatre."

CROWDED HOUSE AT WEST SIDE REVIVAL WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Evangelist MacDonald is drawing larger crowds each night at the West Side Church of Christ. Last night chairs were brought in to help seat the people. The ten minute Bible study each evening during the song service is attracting attention. "The Bible," said the evangelist, "is not a dead book but a live book when studied right. It is a book of stories. The most fascinating stories to be found in all literature are in the Bible."

Last night the sermon was the story of Jacob. "Isaac loved Esau but Rebecca loved Jacob. Favoritism in the home brings trouble. God intended Jacob to have the birthright but He didn't mean for him to steal it. He intended that he should have the blessing, but his mother did not need to make him lie to his father to get it. It didn't pay to hurry God's plans. People who can't wait have trouble. Jacob had to run for his life and his mother never saw him again. Jacob soon had the trick turned on him when he had to serve seven years for his wife and then Laban gave him the wrong girl. Then he had to wait seven more years before he could have his real sweetheart. The love that can't wait can't last. Twenty years after Jacob left home he started back but when he reached Jordan he met God and wrestled till he was willing to submit to Him. Then he was permitted to enter the promised land. People who follow their own plan and make their own religion and don't take God into account will have to reckon with God sooner or later. Surrender, submission, restitution are a part of true repentance. For twenty years he was without his altar of prayer. God called him back to Bethel and there he set up the altar again. You can't have your own way always and succeed. You will meet God some day. Are you ready to meet Him now?"

MacDonaldism.
Don't lie to your children and expect them to be honest. Favoritism brings contempt and lost confidence. Sow deception and you will reap bitter tears. You can't hurry God. It pays to wait. The love that won't wait won't last.

Don't serve the devil all your life and then ask God to save you at death. Don't say you have repented unless you have tried to right your wrong.

Some wrongs can never be righted by man. Only by God's pardon. Announcements.

PARIS DAMAGED BY GALE WHICH SWEEPED FRANCE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, Feb. 17.—A gale swept France yesterday and caused serious damage in Paris and in the provinces. A number of shipwrecks have been reported from the maritime districts and the channel services have been delayed and at some ports entirely interrupted.

Many telegraph wires and many trees have been blown down, and several persons were killed and injured in Paris, by falling tiles and chimneys.

Reports from the front describe the weather for the last forty-eight hours as the worst experienced since the war began. The gale was particularly severe in the Belgian districts.

ARMY INCREASE PLANS TAKING ON DEFINITE SHAPE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 17.—Plans for increasing the regular army and federalization of the national guard began to take definite shape today.

The house military committee undertook the task of framing a militia federalization bill while the senate committee resumed work on its measure to increase the regular army to between 160,000 and 200,000 men. The senate committee is said to have already incorporated into its bill provision for better training of the coast defenses and other items over which there is no disagreement. Items over which there is difference of opinion will be left to be worked out later.

It is generally expected that the military bills will be laid before the house and senate within three weeks, although the naval building program probably will not be completed until May.

Here's New Vigor For Overworked Stomachs

T. J. Evans, the popular druggist, has been in the drug business long enough to have his own opinion of the best selling medicines. He says the plan adopted by Mi-o-na, the great dyspepsia remedy, is the fairest he has ever heard of. He doesn't believe that a medicine ought to be paid for unless it does the user some good. And Mi-o-na is sold under a positive guarantee to relieve dyspepsia or to refund the money. You simply leave 50 cents on deposit with him, and if after you have used the box of Mi-o-na you decide that it has done you no good, all you have to do is to tell him so, and he will return your money.

Hundreds of people have been relieved of stomach agonies by using this remarkable remedy. It is not simply a food digester; it is a medicine that puts all of the digestive organs into normal condition and gives ruddy, flowing, vigorous health. A change for the better will be seen after the first few doses of Mi-o-na, and its continued use will soon give the power to eat anything at any time and not suffer distress afterward.

Mi-o-na is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. This is the strongest proof that can be offered as to the merit of the medicine.

Nothing lessens a man's success in his work or a woman's fascinating personality more than a weak stomach, with its attending evils. Use Mi-o-na and see how much more there is in life.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs kidneys, then back hurts and bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Tells Her Experience To Benefit Others

Mrs. Dunlap Sends a Letter Addressed to the Readers of the Paper.

A sense of duty to others who might suffer as she had impelled Mrs. R. C. Dunlap, of Dekalb, Mo., to send the following signed statement to the St. Joseph, Mo., News Press:

"The readers of the News-Press, especially those suffering from gallstones, stomach trouble and appendicitis, will find in Fruittola and Traxo a permanent cure. After suffering for three years the most excruciating pain from gallstones I found this wonderful remedy and am now in perfect health and have been for almost four years. Never have any symptoms of the old trouble. I had been told by three doctors that nothing but an operation would save me. I know several who have undergone an operation but still have gallstones. This medicine is an oil which softens the stones and cures the liver. It can be bought at any drug store."

Fruittola is an intestinal lubricant that softens the congealed masses, disintegrates the hardened particles, that cause so much suffering, and expels the accumulation to the patient's great relief. Traxo is a tonic-alterative that acts on the liver and kidneys, stimulates the flow of gastric juices to aid digestion, and removes bile from the general circulation.

Fruittola and Traxo are prepared in the Pinus laboratories at Monticello, Ill., and arrangements have been made to supply them through representative druggists. In Newark they can be obtained at T. J. Evans', Warden Hotel Block.

AS WE GROW OLDER

Our minds are quite as active as in former years but our strength does not respond when we need it most; perhaps the kidneys are weak, the liver torpid, rheumatic pains or stiffened joints beset us, and we cannot easily throw off the colds that winter brings.

What we need is the rich cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion to renew the blood and carry strength to every organ of the body, while its glycerine soothes the respiratory tract, and its hypophosphites strengthen the excitable nerves.

Scott's Emulsion is a scientific oil-food, of unusual benefit to those past fifty years—particularly during the colder seasons, it imparts warmth and creates strength. One bottle will prove its worth. No alcohol or harmful drugs.

NEWARK BOWLERS WIN $155.81 IN STATE TOURNEY

Columbus, Feb. 17.—Prize checks having an aggregate value of almost $7,500 will be mailed soon from headquarters of the Ohio bowling tournament as substantial rewards to those successful in the championship matches which opened on February 2 and closed Tuesday. The largest winnings were by Clevelanders. Mansfield came last. Each city represented got in on the prize fund.

Alley owners of Ohio, by donating 50 cents for each alley maintained, got together a fund of $182.50 for special prizes, and the cut-up of this amount provides a most interesting feature in the wind-up of tournament affairs. The committee in charge of this fund specified that certain amounts should go to teams or individuals finishing outside the regular money. It happened that there were many ties, and some of the lucky ones in singles will get as low as 45 cents.

With regular and special prizes counted in and counted as official, but from official records, it is found that Cleveland drew down $2,464.42. Toledo was next, with $1,780.30, making killing in doubles and singles. Columbus bowlers kept $848.98 from going elsewhere, and Cincinnati was fourth, with $543.07. Daytonians won $474.07. Other cities nipped from the prize pot as follows: Canton, $411.46; Akron, $319.60; Marion, $141.66; Findlay, $134; Bowling Green, $85; Sandusky, $355.12; Lancaster, $30.14; Youngstown, $16.20; Mt. Vernon and Bucyrus, $8 each; Springfield, $7.14; Delaware, $6.25; and Mansfield, $1.67.

For Newark, Steckow and Hawkins made the best showing, bringing to Newark $143.50 of the $155.81 awarded to Newark bowlers. Steckow took down $43.50, besides his share of the $100 won with the aid of his partner, Imhoff, with a score of 567, divided a purse between six other bowlers who totaled the same number of pins.

The Newark winners, with scores and money prizes awarded are: Steckow-Hawkins (doubles) scores 1177, prize $100. Steckow, (singles) 617, prize $43.50, (divided ninth prize on tie score.) Imhoff, (singles) score 567, prize $7.14, (divided with six others.) Harbottle, (singles) score 468, prize $1.67. Graesser (singles) score 408, prize $3.50. The last two named won prizes in the special arranged by alley owners of the state.

"SAFETY FIRST" SAYS BOWSER, HE CHANGES SEATS

Being a thorough believer in the "safety first" principle, Paul Bowser has made a change in the seating arrangements in Music Hall to allow better access to the fire escape and to the front exit. While he does not anticipate such a large crowd as attended the Turner match last week, he is making every effort to arrange the seats so the hall may be emptied quickly if so desired.

There was no complaint made against the arrangement which prevailed at the Turner match but Bowser realized that there might be some difficulty in emptying the hall quickly if the occasion arose. Hence the change. Six foot aisles from the ringside to the fire escape and another from the ringside to the front exit have been set aside for use and will be kept clear at all times.

Tonight's program will start at 8:15 p. m. with the Teucher brothers' tilts, who have on two previous occasions given some good entertainment to the fans. The youngsters understand the wrestling game and are enthusiastic in their work. The healthful sport is making sturdy boys of them.

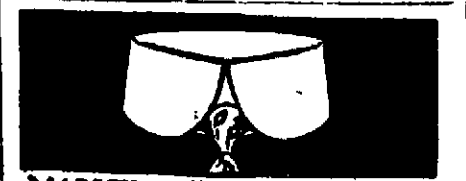

The semi-final is the three cornered match between Jim White of Coshocton and Vance Wallace and John Hechelbery of Newark. White is to throw both Newark men in a half hour.

The main event, between Thor Olson of Pomeroy and Bowser promises to be fully as interesting as any other match than that with Turner. Olson is a powerful man, understands the game and will be a good opponent for Bowser with his clever manner of blocking and his ability to stand punishment.

There are still some good seats available for the match tonight.

Basketball Team Of Y. M. C. A. Asks Game With Athens

A challenge has been issued by the basketball team of the Newark Y. M. C. A. directed to the basketball five of the Athens Association and it is expected that the interchange of notes will result in arranging a game soon. The basketball game has taken a new lease on life at the Y. M. C. A. The defeat at Coshocton last week has aroused the fighting spirit of the local players and they have determined to get Coshocton's scalp on the next meeting of the two teams. Last night there was a large squad on the gym floor for practice, indicating a re-awakening of interest in the sport.

WHY OLD BACKS ACHES

Many Newark Old People Have Found Backache to be a Sign of Kidney Weakness.

What a pity that so many people past middle age are worried with lame backs, aching kidneys, poor eyesight, sick headaches, dizziness, gravel, dropsy or distressing urinary ills. Kidney weakness brings these discomforts in age or youth, and is a dangerous thing to neglect for it leads to Bright's disease and uric acid poisoning. Doan's Kidney Pills have brought new strength to many Newark old people. You will make no mistake by following Mr. Pritchett's example.

P. B. Pritchett, 406 Wilson street, Newark, says: "I had kidney trouble and wore a plaster all the time. I tried any number of medicines for lumbago and weak back. It remained for Doan's Kidney Pills, however, to cure me. For years now, I have had a strong back and although I am nearly seventy-five years old, I can stand a lot of strains on my back. Doan's Kidney Pills also cured me of getting up at night. This trouble hasn't annoyed me since."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Pritchett had. Foster-McLburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Baseball Fans, Attention

C. Webb Murphy Reveals Inside Secrets to Readers of the Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Baseball has had no more interesting club owner than Charles W. Murphy, for 10 years the head of the National League club in Chicago. During his presidency of that club there occurred some of the most famous and most dramatic episodes in the history, not only of the club itself, but of organized baseball.

Mr. Murphy now considers himself free to tell of some of these events—to tell of them from the magnate's point of view, and what he believes to be the right and proper viewpoint.

He will tell his side of the much discussed severance of relations between the Chicago club management and Frank L. Chance, the "Peerless Leader." Mr. Murphy will tell how he induced Charles P. Taft to lend him the money to buy the Cubs; of the unsuccessful attempt Ban B. Johnson made to buy into the Chicago club; how a member of the National Commission attempted to disrupt the great Cub machine by luring away "Johnny" Kling on the promise of setting him up in the billiard business; the detailed story of the resignation of "Johnny" Evers as Chance's successor as manager of the Cubs; why "Three-Finger" Brown was let go by the Cubs management; hitherto untold facts in reference to the election of John K. Tener as president of the National League while Mr. Murphy was absent in Europe, etc., etc. And the author "takes the lid off" in every article.

These articles are now appearing in the Pittsburgh Dispatch. No baseball fan should pass up this opportunity to "get hep" to the inner workings of baseballdom. Order the Sunday Dispatch from your newsdealer. 2-17d1*

Pittsburgh, Feb. 17.—Another date has been added to the practice game schedule of the Pittsburgh National league club, according to an announcement made here. The Pirates will play Little Rock (Ark.) club of the Southern Association in Little Rock, on April 3.

OLSON IS DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS IN BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB

Thor Olson, Pomeroy wrestler, who appears in Newark tonight as an opponent of Paul Bowser in the match at Music Hall, reached the city last night. This morning he announced himself as being in good condition for tonight's meeting with Bowser and said he expected to win. "If I don't," said Olson, "I'll be the first man to acknowledge Bowser's superiority."

Olson is clean-cut in appearance and looks to be in the pink of condition. He says he weighs about 155 and doesn't look any heavier. He has been a wrestler for the past 10 years and has met some of the best men in the business. He has met Turner and Albright, and claims to be the first man who ever threw Turner in Washington, D. C., his home town.

At Pomeroy, Olson is physical director in the Business Men's club, having classes in wrestling and Swedish gymnastics, both men and women. He also has gymnastic classes in the public schools. Wrestling matches with professionals is a side issue with him but his work in the gymnasium of the Business Men's club keeps him in good condition at all times.

He is a member of the Masonic lodge at Pomeroy and has recently taken additional degrees.

WILLARD-MORAN BOUT MARCH 25th; AGREEMENT MADE

Chicago, Feb. 17.—Postponement of the Willard-Moran bout at Madison Square Garden, New York, to March 25, was agreed upon yesterday by all the principals involved except Moran, and it was said he would offer no objection. A brief visit to the champion's home in Rogers park today convinced Dave Lewinsohn, representative of Tex Rickard, the promoter, that Willard could not get in shape by March 8, the original date, and over the telephone he obtained Mr. Rickard's consent to the delay.

With Tom Jones, Willard's manager, Lewinsohn interviewed Jess and found him suffering from a cold that interfered too much with his breathing to allow him to train consistently. Jones agreed to stay with Willard until he recovered sufficiently to begin work and then to take him to New York, where all his rounding into shape is to take place. Physicians were not sure when Willard would be able to work, but it is expected it will be in two weeks or less.

AMERICAN LG. OWNERS MEET IN NEW YORK

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Feb. 17.—Owners and managers of American league baseball clubs gathered here today to attend a meeting of the league this afternoon at which it was expected the schedule for the coming season would be considered.

Owners of the other clubs looked to President Ban Johnson for some announcement as to the identity of the men for whom he acted in purchasing the Cleveland team.

President Tener of the National league and President Johnson of the American league will confer in an effort to adjust the details of the baseball peace agreement recently made. No meeting of the national commission is to be held until tomorrow when August Herrman is expected to be present.

SWEED IS AFTER ATHLETICS FOR BIG FIELD MEET

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Feb. 17.—Ernest Hjertberg, trainer of Swedish athletes, left for Sweden today on the steamship Oscar II, with the hope of bringing to America next year a sufficient number of Swedish athletes to make an equal representation with those of the United States in the proposed international track and field games.

At a farewell dinner tendered him last night by athletes and others identified with track and field sports Hjertberg suggested the organization of an international society for the advancement of athletics. He proposed that the men who favor the plan should subscribe $1 a year to a fund to promote international athletic meets and to entertain visiting teams. The idea met with some approval and the first contributions to the fund were given by some of those attending the dinner.

600 TEAMS ARE ENTERED IN A. B. C. MEET IN TOLEDO

(Associated Press Telegram)
Toledo, Feb. 17.—Six hundred teams have been entered in the American bowling congress tournament which begins here March 4, according to a statement made last night by A. L. Langtry, secretary of the congress, who is here in personal charge of the event. Entries close tomorrow night.

President E. J. Ryan came here from Detroit last night and turned in entry fees for twenty-five teams already gathered in the Michigan metropolis. This number will be increased by twenty Mr. Ryan said.

Announcement last night was that Cleveland will have thirty-five teams. Toledo promises two hundred and a large percentage of that number is already in.

GOVERNOR COX'S DAUGHTER MAKES DEBUT AS PHOTO PLAYER YESTERDAY

Miss Helen Cox, daughter of former Governor Cox of Ohio, made her debut as a photoplayer yesterday at the Lubin studios in Philadelphia. Miss Cox made her first step before the camera in a rather sudden and unexpected fashion.

Director Edwin McKim, who is staging the Davy Don Comedies for the Lubin company had assembled his company for the making of "Skirts and Cinders" for the several scenes underlined for the day when he made the discovery that one of the characters in his scenario designated a young society belle of exclusive type and that the two or three young women in his company who were capable of filling it had been given other important parts.

"In a quandary for a moment, he picked up a Washington society journal from a table where it was serving as 'props' for a scene. Mr. McKim pointed to a portrait on the front page and remarked that it was just the type he wanted. It was a photograph of Miss Helen Cox, daughter of former Governor Cox of Ohio.

One of Mr. McKim's assistants took a look at the journal and observed that the accompanying article stated that Miss Cox was at present a guest at the fashionable Margrave apartments in Philadelphia.

A believer in the theory that if you never take a chance you are not likely to win, Mr. McKim grabbed the telephone receiver and a few minutes later was explaining to the surprised Miss Cox that the destinies of the moving picture industry depended upon her consent to enact for his camera her natural role of a real society belle.

And now Mr. McKim is also a believer in luck. It seems that his tale of woe fell upon sympathetic ears. The novelty of the idea may have helped. Anyway a real live governor's daughter stepped into her car at the Margrave and with a little coaching from McKim, faced the Lubin cameras at the studios yesterday and according to the happy director acquitted herself like a veteran queen of the screen. Buckeye patrons of moving pictures will be on the alert for the release of "Skirts and Cinders."

LEVEE BROKE; REFUGEES IN GREAT DANGER

(Associated Press Telegram)
New Orleans, Feb. 17.—Flood waters from the crevasse in the Mississippi river at Duck Ridge, early today are near the town of St. Joseph. The water is taking a southward course after having filled Lake Bruin, seven miles below Newellton.

Hundreds of recruits have joined the rescuing parties and organized efforts are being made to take the marooned persons to places of safety. Scarcity of boats makes this work difficult.

There are several thousand negro refugees housed in mills and cotton gins around Newellton and few if any brought more than enough food to last through a day.

During the night the refugee camps at Natchez and Vidalia gained many new members.

WAS ALMOST WILD WITH PAINS IN BACK & SIDES

TAN-LAC, THE MASTER MEDICINE, BANISHED THE PAINS AND TONED UP SYSTEM.

Such is the Experience of Mrs. Nellie Blair, Pastry Chef at the Ideal Exchange.

Tan-lac acts alike on males and females—the old and the young, the rich and the poor—it is a medicine for all with troubles it is recommended to help. One of the latest to speak words of praise of the Master Medicine, is Mrs. Nellie Blair, pastry chef at Billingslea's Ideal Exchange on Church street, and who resides at 56 North Second street. Mrs. Blair had an aggravating case of stomach trouble and took many preparations without any relief whatever until she tried Tan-lac. She is now much benefited and has only taken one bottle. In speaking of the matter Mrs. Blair said: "I had a severe case of stomach disorder and had it for years and could find nothing to relieve me until I tried Tan-lac, and thanks to that great medicine. I'm very much improved and will at once begin on a second bottle. I was almost wild with the trouble—pains in my sides and back, gas on my stomach, and I was in a general run down condition, but Tan-lac has banished the pains, strengthened me and I'm greatly improved in every respect. For which I give Tan-lac all the credit."

Tan-lac is not only good for cases like Mrs. Blair had but equally as beneficial in catarrh, rheumatism, liver and kidney troubles and the after effects of la grippe and pneumonia, and a great nerve and general tonic and system purifier. Tan-lac is being demonstrated at Hall's drug store and is for sale at the Hebron Drug Co., at Pataskala by J. R. Strine, at Granville by W. P. Ullman, at Utica by P. H. Richardson, and at Asheville by D. H. Squire & Son. (Adv.)

Granville

Granville, O., Feb. 17.—The meeting in the Opera House last night in the interests of the joint town and township High school building, was well attended and the project received a thorough airing and Prof. C. D. Coons, Mayor of Granville and member of the school committee, presided, and called on several well known men to give their views on the subject. Prof. J. L. Clifton who was deputy school commissioner and is now professor of education at Ohio State; Mr. E. W. Jordan of Newark, County Superintendent of schools; Mr. G. M. Strong of Granville, superintendent of schools, each made a strong and convincing talk in favor of such a building. Several others in the audience spoke extemporaneously. Several asked questions and received replies, appertaining to their satisfaction, for when the chairman called for a rising vote there was no dissent, even though a few declined to commit themselves. It looks favorable for the new building which is sadly needed, but much additional light must be thrown on the subject before it is submitted to the voters. Some of them are "from Missouri," apparently.

The Granville Woman's Music club presented a delightful program of American composers at the meeting on Wednesday afternoon, February 16, which might almost be called an artists' recital. The improvement in technique and interpretation of these musicians is quite marked and the performances are a pleasure to the small but appreciative audiences which assemble twice a month at the home of Mrs. C. D. Coons in East Broadway. Miss Blanche La Ferre was leader and gave some delightful reminiscences of the composers, many of whom she had seen or heard. Mrs. C. D. Coons, Miss Lisle, Miss Wright and Miss Hulshizer were the pianists and fairly out-did themselves in the thoroughly musical quality of their work. Mrs. Rohrer, Mrs. Ogilvie and Mrs. Roe Morrow who gave the beautiful vocal numbers were all in fine voice. Mrs. White and Mrs. Stickney being the accompanists. Mrs. White with the Question Box and Mrs. Case with Current Events furnished food for thought, and the chorus under Mrs. Rohrer's direction was composed of Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. Rohrer, Mrs. Brelsford, Mrs. Eschman, Mrs. Colwell, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. White and Mrs. Thompson. Below is the program as rendered.

Stross—Vocal solo, "Will o' the Wisp," Mrs. J. W. Rohrer.
Lang—"Twilight," Mrs. J. W. Rohrer.
Seeböck—Piano Solo, "Minuet," Miss Dora O. Lisle.
Dutton—Piano Duet, "Arabesque" Misses Wright and Hulshizer.
Ganz—"Etude Caprice," Misses Wright and Hulshizer.
Salter—Vocal Solo, "Japanese Cradle Song," Mrs. Roe Morrow.
The Sweet o' the Year," Mrs. J. L. Ogilvie.
Oldberg—Piano Solo, "Praeludium," Mrs. C. D. Coons.
Brooklyn—"Idyll of Morning Water," Mrs. C. D. Coons.
Hatch—Chorus, "The Maiden and the Butterfly," "The Four Winds."
Hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. J. D. Thompson, Mrs. R. S. Colwell, Mrs. J. W. Rohrer. Guests of the club were Mrs. Martin of Seattle, Washington; Mrs. W. H. Dalney; Mrs. E. C. Roberts; Mrs. Ben Woodbury, Miss Isabel Raymond; Miss Annabel Owen.

Why Prince Albert Wins

Patent Process Is Responsible for Its International Popularity.

Smokers so much appreciate the flavor and coolness and aroma of Prince Albert pipe and cigarette tobacco that they often marvel that this one brand could be so different from all others.

The answer to this question is to be found on the reverse side of every Prince Albert package, where you will read: "Process Patented July 30th, 1907." That tells the whole story. Prince Albert is made by a patented process that cuts out the bite and parch, which makes the tobacco so mighty agreeable and satisfying to men of every nation on the globe.

Smokers should realize that this patented process cost three years' continuous work and study and a fortune in money to perfect. But the result has proven to be worth all that was expended upon it, because it has set free men who believed they never could enjoy a pipe or a makin's cigarette.

Prince Albert makes it possible for every man to smoke a pipe or to roll his own cigarettes. And, no matter how tender the tongue, Prince Albert cannot bite or parch. That is cut out by the patented process, leaving for the smoker only the joys of the fragrant tobacco.

It is a fact that since Prince Albert "arrived," just about six years ago, it has made three men smoke pipes where one smoked a pipe before!
